

PLANT LIST

Botanical Name	Common Name	Characteristics
Raphiolepis	Indian Hawthorne	pink flowers, can grow to 8'
Leymus Condensatus	Giant Wild Rye Grass	giant blue grass
Pittosporum	Wheeler's Dwarf	usually shaped into a rounded ball 2-3'
Trachelospermum Jasminoides	Star Jasmine	low growing shrub with white fragrant flowers
Nandina domestica	Heavenly Bamboo	open growth to 5-6' with red-orange berries
Plumbago	Cape Plumbago	mounding growth with mainly blue flowers
Euryops	Euryops	low growing with yellow daisy like flowers
Agave	Agave	large succulent, several varieties
Lavandula	Lavender	four different varieties, can grow to 3-4'
Loropetalum chinenses	Loropetalum purple diamond	purple foliage, pink flowers, grows to 4-5'
Pride of Madeira	Pride or Madeira	large purple spikes, can grow to 6'
Cistus	Rock Rose	grows to 4-6' with deep pink flowers
Salvia leucantha	Mexican sage	shrub to 3-4', long purple spikes
Pennisetum	Fountain grass	Many varieties, shrub to 3-4', long tan fuzzy flower spikes
Buxus sempervirens	Boxwood	small shrub with small evergreen shiny leaves
Brifloraunfelsia pauciflora	Yesterday, today & tomorrow	grows to 7-10' with violet, lavender and white flowers
Gaura lindheimeri	Gaura	Pink or white flowers on long thin spikes
Muhlenbergia capillaris	Pink muhly grass	native ornamental grass, grows to 2-3'
Achillea millefolium	yarrow	Perennial plant that produces either white, pink or yellow flowers
Dietes grandiflora	Fortnight lily	Perennial plant that produces white flowers with lavender centers. It has long green strappy sword-like leaves
Ceanothus	California mountain lilac	Evergreen shrub with either blue, white or lavender flowers
Gardenia jasminoides	Gardenia	Small evergreen shrub with white fragrant flowers
Agapanthus	Lily of the Nile	Drought tolerant perennial with strappy green leaves and flowers that open like fireworks
Hydrangea	Hydrangea	Several varieties, many colors of flowers
Azalea	Azalea	Flowering shrub, several colors